Bipolar disorder (BD) is a chronic and disabling condition, with an estimated lifetime prevalence of 2.2%, and a 1.7% incidence in males and 2.1% in females during the year 2000. In this paper, the authors review the current literature on the relationship between fatty acids and antiepileptic drugs (AEDs) in the treatment of BD. They comment on their own experience with a patient who has had a significant reduction in the frequency of his affective episodes with a switch to the more rapidly-acting risperidone. The authors comment on the use of the combination of AEDs and omega-3 (omega-3) fatty acids in the treatment of BD and the results of a recent study showing that plasma levels of omega-3 fatty acids were lower in patients with BD than in controls, regardless of mood status. The authors conclude that further studies are warranted to further explore the relationship between fatty acids and AEDs.Q: No suitable driver found for jdbc:h2:tcp://localhost:1 When I try to connect to the postgresql database using jdbc, I get the error: java.sql.SQLException: No suitable driver found for jdbc:h2:tcp://localhost:1/xxx I set the H2_DRIVER_PATH and tried explicitly specifying the driver via the DriverManager's getConnection method, but it still doesn't work.
