Published:11:05Wednesday 17 June 2015 Share this article Katie Hopkins has dismissed claims from her newspaper that the Liberal Democrats are set to benefit from a UKIP surge in the polls. "Does the Telegraph think that, between now and election day, UKIP will pick up over 1 million new voters - despite being in opposition to the government?" she wrote in an article on her Facebook page, where she has attracted more than 500,000 followers. "Despite making hideous, right-wing comments about gay people, women's rights and minorities, the Lib Dems have come out of nowhere to pick up around 10,000 votes across the country. "The very fact they' 1cdb36666d
